Chris the Cricket

Once upon a time there was a small brown cricket named Chris. He lived in a field and he loved to sing. He would rub his wings together and then he would begin to chirp.

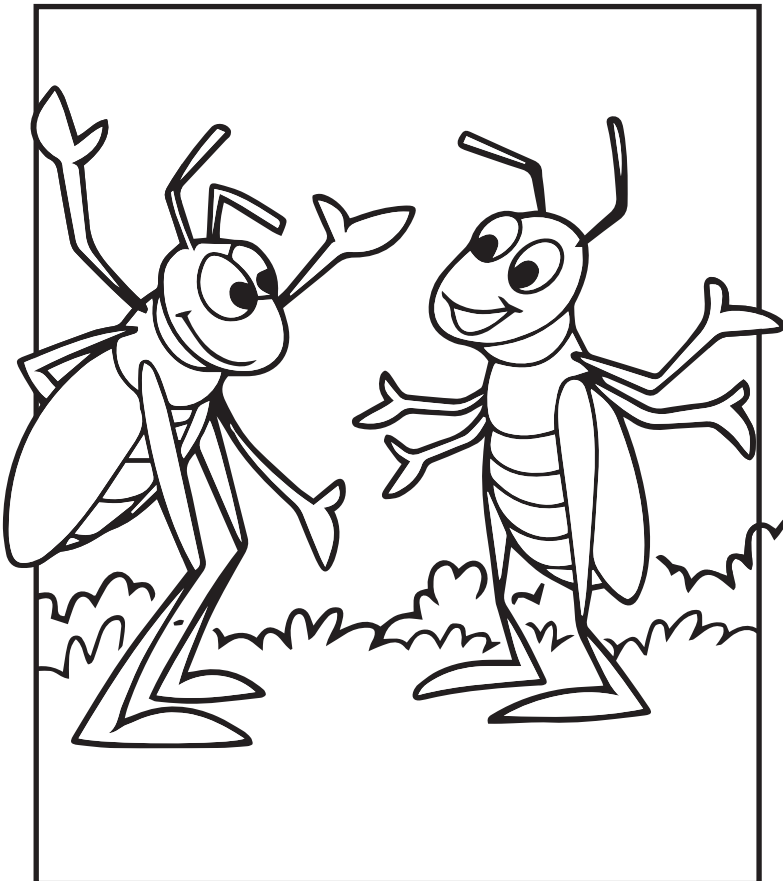

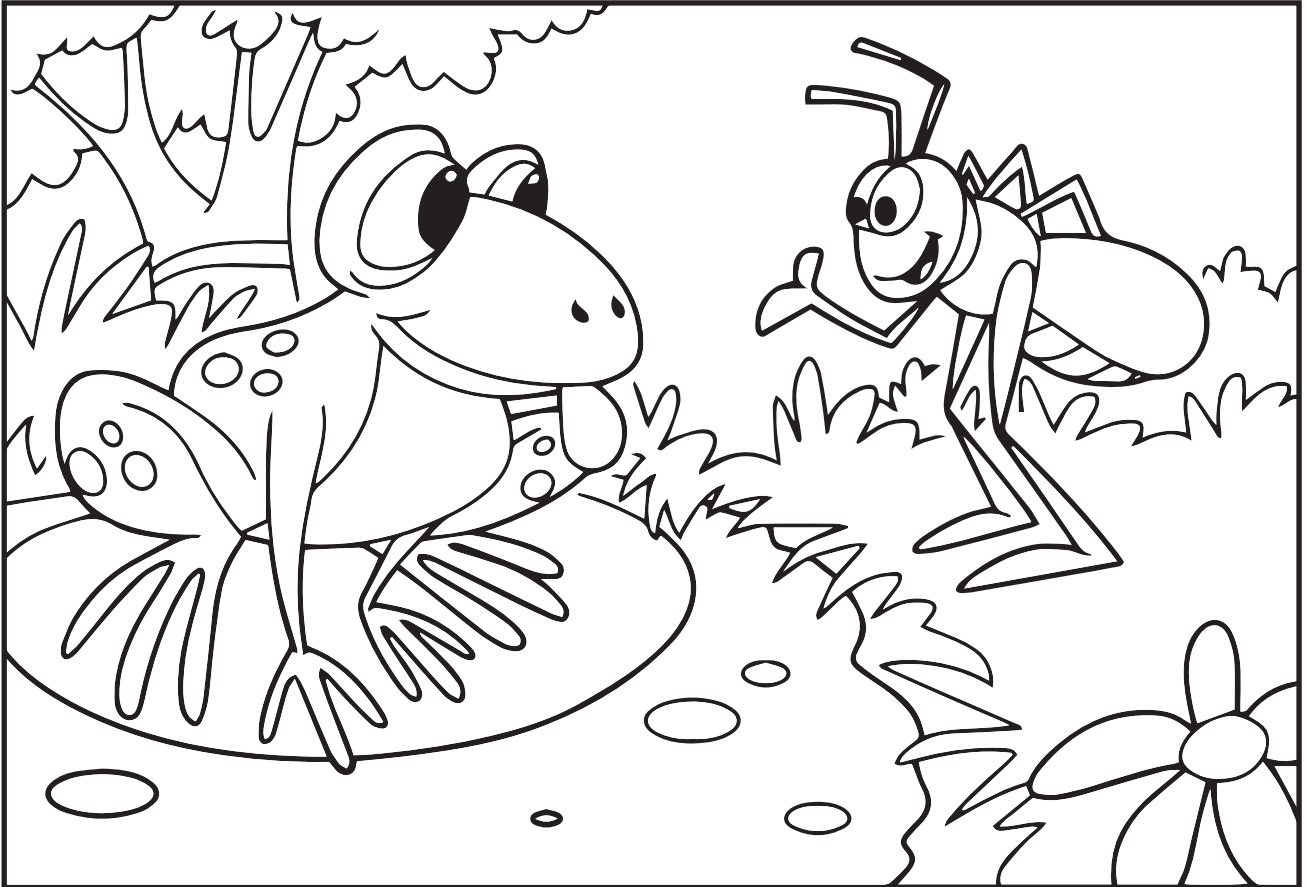

One afternoon Bernie the bird flew past Chris and asked him, "Why do you like to sing so often?"

Chris said, "I am singing so that I can find true love."

On the other side of the field lived Cathy Cricket. She was looking at the stars in the night sky when she heard a beautiful song. "Who is singing that beautiful song?" she asked Freddy the Frog. "It is Chris Cricket. He lives on the other side of the field," said Freddy the Frog.

“I must find him,” said Cathy Cricket.

Cathy Cricket began to hop across the field and follow the song. When she got closer to the other side of the field the song got louder and louder. Suddenly she saw Chris Cricket. Cathy Cricket said “I heard your beautiful song so I came to find you.” Chris and Cathy Cricket lived happily ever after in the field.
