

Date	English homework Week 7 - lockdown
Date 18 to 22May
Monday 18 May	Phonics book: Week 16, words for Monday. Re-write the words in alphabetical order. Write sentences with two spelling words. Remember your Capital letter, full stop and words to make your sentence exciting. Practise using an exclamation mark or a question mark, in your sentence. Add a verb to your sentences. Handwriting: Practise your handwriting. Remember your rules (always work from top to bottom, left to right and start at 2 o'clock and go anti clockwise for circle letters.). Practice Uu and remember to use head, tummy, tail. Verbs: A verb is a word used to describe an action. E.g. I run (run is the verb) to the shop. Antonyms: Are words that mean the opposite to each other. E.g. Good and bad, fast and slow, big and small. Activity: Write down ten antonyms you can think of. News: Continue writing your own diary. Talk about what you do each day and how it makes you feel. (A diary is a private book for you to write things that are important to you.). It only needs to be 7 to 10 sentences. Read: Practise you sight words, grade 2 term 1. Try to make sentences with your sight words (Just read them, do not write them). English: Describe the monster activity.
Tuesday 19 May	Phonics book: Week 16, words for Tuesday. Write sentences with two spelling words. Remember your Capital letter, full stop and words to make your sentence exciting. You can also use a question mark or exclamation mark. (exclamation mark is used when something is said and doesn't need an answer, it is not a question but a statement.). Handwriting: Practise writing Jj, remember head, tummy, tails. Write a sentence using as many j words as you can think of. News: Continue writing your own diary. Talk about what you do each day and how it makes you feel. (A diary is a private book for you to write things that are important to you.). It only needs to be 7 to 10 sentences. Read: Practise you sight words, grade 2 term 2. Try to make sentences with your sight words (Just read them, do not write them). English: Complete the verb, alphabetical order and antonym (use a dictionary to find the meaning of these words) worksheet 1.
Wednesday 20 May	Phonics book: Week 16, words for Wednesday. Re-write week 8's words in alphabetical order, remember to start with words starting with an 'a'. Write sentences with two spelling words. Remember your Capital letter, full stop and words to make your sentence exciting. Remember to use a capital letter, full stop, question marks and verbs. Handwriting: Practise writing Pp, remember head, tummy, tails. Write a sentence using as many p words as you can think of. News: Continue writing your own diary. Talk about what you do each day and how it makes you feel. (A diary is a private book for you to write things that are important to you.). It only needs to be 5 to 7 sentences. Read: Practise you sight words, grade 2 term 1. Try to make sentences with your sight words (Just read them, do not write them). English: Complete the comprehension, little by little.
Thursday 21 May	Phonics book: Week 16, words for Thursday. Write sentences with two spelling words. Remember your Capital letter, full

	stop and words to make your sentence exciting. Remember to use a capital letter, full stop, nouns and adjectives. Handwriting: Practise writing Yy, remember head, tummy, tails. Write a sentence using as many y words as you can think of. News: Continue writing your own diary. Talk about what you do each day and how it makes you feel. (A diary is a private book for you to write things that are important to you.). It only needs to be 7 to 10 sentences. Read: Practise your sight words, grade 2 term 2. Try to make sentences with your sight words (Just read them, do not write them). English: Complete verb, antonym (use a dictionary to find the meaning of the word) and alphabetical order worksheet 2.
Friday 22 May	Phonics book: Week 16, practise breaking up the words and spelling them, pretend to have a home spelling test. Write sentences with two spelling words. Remember your Capital letter, full stop and verbs. Remember to use a capital letter, full stop, nouns and adjectives. News: Continue writing your own diary. Talk about what you do each day and how it makes you feel. (A diary is a private book for you to write things that are important to you.). It only needs to be 7 to 10 sentences. English: Read a story book from home and write five question sentences or statements, that are about your story book. Do not forget your question mark or exclamation mark, at the end of your sentence.